

Kologik Affirms Uncompromised Safety and Security Amidst Recent Speculation

BATON ROUGE, LA – November 17, 2023 – Kologik, a leading innovator of responsive, scalable, and user-friendly software for law enforcement organizations, today issues a statement in response to recent posts circulating on various platforms suggesting Kologik is a victim of ransomware or that one or more systems at Kologik have been compromised. The company categorically denies any breach and reiterates its steadfast commitment to ensuring the safety and security of all client data.

In the digital landscape, where concerns about data breaches loom large, Kologik has always prioritized the implementation of robust security measures to safeguard the integrity of its clients' information. Despite recent speculation and unfounded claims on various platforms, Kologik wants to reassure its clients, stakeholders, and the public that all data within its purview remains safe and secure.

"At Kologik, our commitment to safety and security is unwavering. We have invested significantly in cutting-edge technologies and practices to ensure that our clients' data is protected from any potential threats," said Paul San Soucie, CEO at Kologik. "We want to emphasize that there has been no compromise of data or infrastructure as suggested in recent posts. Kologik continues to operate with the highest standards of security to provide our clients with the peace of mind they deserve."

The company urges its clients and partners to remain vigilant against misinformation and to contact Kologik directly with any concerns or questions regarding the security of their data. Kologik also encourages the public to rely on official communication channels for accurate and up-to-date information about the company.

Kologik remains at the forefront of the data management industry, continually innovating to meet the evolving challenges of the digital landscape. The company takes this opportunity to express gratitude for the ongoing trust and confidence placed in its services by clients and partners.
